The Court made the following:

ORDER:

The petitioner filed this writ petition questioning the action of respondent Nos.1 and 3 in not accepting his son's application for admission into pre-primary I class course in the first respondent-public school for the academic year 1998-99, as arbitrary and unconstitutional.

When the matter came up today for hearing, none appears for the petitioner as well as the respondents.

This Court while admitting the writ petition by order dated
09-04-1998, granted interim direction to the respondents to reserve one seat unfilled in Pre-primary I Class amongst the reserved quota for the session 1998-99. It is not known whether in pursuance of the said order, the case of the petitioner has been considered. Be that as it may, by lapse of time, the cause in this writ petition has become infructuous, for the petitioner was seeking admission for his son into the Pre-Primary I Class during the academic year 1998-99.

Therefore, the writ petition is dismissed as having become infructuous. No costs.
